

Call for Presentations Mid-Atlantic Marine Education Association

Annual Professional Development Conference
October 2 – 3, 2009

Virden Center, University of Delaware
Lewes, Delaware

Submission Deadline: September 8, 2009

The Mid-Atlantic Marine Education Association (MAMEA) is an organization of people whose common goal is to improve education about all aspects of marine and aquatic environments. Members come from Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, the District of Columbia, and beyond. We represent many institutions, organizations and programs. MAMEA is a regional chapter of the National Marine Educators Association (NMEA).
